

CHRISTMAS MASS AT THE PWALES CHAPEL ON WEDNESDAY THE 13TH DECEMBER 2017

The celebration of Christmas mass at the Pwales chapel, has this year attracted a nice congregation, filling all the benches and has over spilled onto the parvis. The weather was most pleasant and a number of participants had to be seated outside in a bright sunny morning.

In his usual manner, Fr. William Bartolo has kept everyone listening to the word of God and admiring the method of his transmitting a Christian message that was most adept for this time of year. This was the last occasion of this year of getting together the ALPS members and their families inside the chapel at Pwales. Christmas carols were sung for the occasion. When holy mass ended, the congregation spent a good hour socializing and sharing tea, coffee and cakes, that have been specially prepared for this occasion.

May the Peace and Joy of Christmas continue to prevail through the coming Year 2018 on all members and friends of The Association of Lyceum Past Students.
